

Mane Stage Manager (4-8 hours per week)

Are you good at planning, can you think creatively and would you like to contribute to the My Little Pony community? Would you like to gain experience at organising events? Then don't hesitate to apply to this Committee position!

For Hearth's Warming Con 2020 we are looking for two events managers; one to manage the big events for the Mane Stage and one to handle the smaller, but more abundant activities. As Mane Stage Manager, you will be in charge of planning and organising events on the Mane Stage as well as ensuring they run smoothly during the convention. These events can for instance include guest panels, cosplay competitions and musical events.

The event managers will collaborate on suggestions for fun events that will appeal to the visitors as well as on making a convention schedule and scripts for the events. If you wish to host one or two events yourself during the convention, this is possible as well.

Required/Desirable Skills

- A creative mind.
